BUSINESS NEWS FOR NEWPORT BEACH

Staff Promotions at Haskell White

Haskell & White LLP, one of Southern California's largest independently owned accounting, auditing and tax consulting firms, announced the promotions of several staff members, including two from Newport Beach.

Angela Behrens of Corona del Mar has been promoted to principal in the Tax Department. With nearly 18 years at Haskell & White, Behrens has experience in transaction consulting, succession planning, estate and gift tax, and multi-state and international reporting. Behrens has a Master of Business Taxation from University of Southern California and a degree in business economics from The University of California, Los Angeles.

Matthias Weber of Newport Beach has been promoted to principal in the Tax Department. Matthias has managed the tax accounts of large multi-state and multi-national corporations and coordinated restructuring and M&A projects, tax consulting, tax provisions, stock compensation matters, tax audits and accounting methods. Weber has extensive experience serving a wide range of businesses in various industries. He has a Master of Business Taxation from University of Southern California, and a Bachelor of Science in business administration/finance from Chapman University, The George L. Argyros School of Business and Economics. Weber also serves on the Board of Directors for Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County
